

The State of New Jersey has passed a well intended strick "Do Not Call List". As part of legislator Dick Codey's original law everyone should have the ability to be free from continual telemarketing calls that invariably start at 8 AM only ending at 9 PM. I am not now on that Do Not Call List. I subscribed today and will confirm when I receive my email. The New Jersey version protects our privacy the way it should be.